Everyman: The Story of Patrick McGoohan - The Prisoner Brian Gorman

Very cleverly told. Using McGoohan's iconic hero of Number Six as an overseeing narrator and interspersing the well-remembered questioning tone of the idealistic everyman across the entire biography gives a great feel of in-character drama. While biographies can often be leaden in their pedantic attempts to detail a life's minutiae, this approach-coupled with its theatrical visualisation-wonderfully reflects the very goals of its subject, to rise above the predictable and the mundane. Dez Skinn Former Head of Marvel UK, creator and editor of Doctor Who Magazine and Starburst Magazine, and creator of graphic novel V For Vendetta.
