Thru My Eyes Book II (Volume 2) Mrs Malinda Guerrero Castoreno

Follow the Guetarro children as they attempt to cope with their mom's death, being separated from one another, and always, the fear of their father Johnny Guetarro, just about the most ruthless gangster to rule the streets of Fort Worth, Texas. There would be only one way to get the Guetarro children away from their father, whom had beat 11 year old Becky severely. Malina's aunts would step in, but not to report him for abuse, rather turn a blind eye to their brothers abuse and insist the children needed to move in with them and go home everyday after school to a warm home, and home cooked meals. But would it be enough to keep the children safe? Not likely....
