Richard Drake is just an ordinary man leading an ordinary life. Can he find the strength and determination to do extraordinary things when he and his family are threatened by vicious killers? Richard is a successful antique dealer who inadvertently buys a bronze that has been stolen from a murdered woman, Gladys Harper. Unfortunately for Richard, her two sons turn out to be vicious killers. When they learn of Richard's involvement, they decide that he and his family will have to pay a heavy price. Why did Margaret's muggers steal her handbag containing, money, keys, credit cards and her address book; and then return it again; apparently untouched? How will the discovery of the body of a young boy; buried in the Harper's garden for many years, affect the present murder inquiry? And what will be the fate of poor Louise, mistaken for Richard's daughter Rebecca? Will the police get to her in time?
