Singaporean Thoughts : On Dating, Politics, and Entertainment Cirsten Weldon

Singaporean Thoughts is the story of Asian-born Cirsten Weldon, inspired from her experiences as a model, a Playboy Playmate, and actress, as well as from her personal faith and political worldview. It includes her thoughts on decor, politics, religion, and dating. She lived a very interesting and, to some, coveted, childhood. Her father was the Chairman of the Singapore Stock Exchange and her mother a Cambridge-educated attorney. At 14, she left her very affluent family in Singapore to go to boarding school—a tough decision for a young girl, but one she has never regretted. As she says in Singaporean Thoughts, it gave her a strong foundation of hard work that has continued to serve her through adulthood.
