Les mystères de l'oreille (French Edition) Nadia Volf

Depuis des temps immémoriaux, le pavillon de l'oreille a toujours été considéré comme une zone du corps un peu " magique ". Certains points bien précis de ce pavillon ont une double fonction : ils informent sur l'état des organes auxquels ils correspondent mais, en outre, agissant comme une sorte de commande à distance, ils permettent d'en modifier les réglages en cas de dysfonctionnement. Ainsi, d'anciennes légendes faisant état de guérisons prétendument miraculeuses (parce qu'alors inexplicables) grâce à une action sur les " points auriculaires " (ainsi les appelle-t-on désormais), sont aujourd'hui corroborées par de récentes découvertes scientifiques. Selon celles-ci, le pavillon de l'oreille est en effet relié à l'ensemble du système nerveux, un peu comme le clavier d'un ordinateur est connecté à un réseau informatique.

Toujours aussi passionnante, l'acupuntrice Nadia Volf nous livre ici les secrets de son art, grâce à une présentation vulgarisée de sa science de l'auriculothérapie.
