True Love Benita E. J. Smith

The road of life is paved with spectacular highs and excruciating lows, moments of joy and laughter with friends, and crushing tears and sadness—out of those moments we can learn precious life lessons, foster a healthy sense of confidence, and learn who we are and where we are destined to go.

True Love is a beautiful and powerful story about the unconditional love that exists for everyone who believes and one woman who was brave enough to seek and accept that love.

Author Benita E. J. Smith shares a deeply personal journey of overcoming obstacles, including low self-esteem and shyness, to rejoicing in God's immeasurable, unconditional, and all-encompassing love. Although it took Smith many years to fully accept the acceptance that had always been freely offered to her, she is hopeful her story will inspire others who may be lost, feel alone, or are depressed to believe in and embrace a life filled with God's abiding love and grace.

Extending beyond the boundaries of gender, race, status, or occupation, True Love is about what every human heart desires to experience and deserves to know. Smith's hope is that you feel God's true and everlasting love in your life.
