What Do Women Want?: Adventures in the science of female attraction

The great question that has never been answered What does a woman want? Dear man you might think she wants your car, your money, and gifts but the right woman wants your time, your smile, your honesty, your effort, and you choosing to put her as a priority otherwise every woman wants sincerity, honesty, truthfulness and transparency in her relationship with the man she loves so dearly. she will love him if he gives her his time and attention. she will love him a lot if he loves her and accepts her with all her flaws and imperfections. she will love him more and more if he is honest and sincere. She will love him more than anything if he is genuine .she will love him more than her life and follow him to the ends of the world if he loves her to the core with all his heart and soul, every woman wants a man who respects her for her values, virtues and ethics. she wants a man who is proud of her strong character and her unique personality.
