A young Amish girl's parents are determined that she should get married. So much so that they decide on the man for her.... Will she agree?

Rebecca Miller was fed up with the talks from her parents about the fact that she was getting old. She wasn't yet 20, but her parents seemed determined to marry her off at the earliest opportunity.

Eli was the most handsome young Amish man in the community. The problem was he knew it. He knew all of the girls were half in love with him. His father knew it as well, and he was determined to get Eli married before any English girls got hold of him.

The two sets of parents conspired to get the young couple together. However, Rebecca wasn't keen on the proposed match.

Was Eli hiding something under his confident persona? And who was the strange man who came to Rebecca's aid after a buggy crash?
