Naturalists at the Polar Regions - the Arctic Roy John

This is a companion book to "Naturalists at the Polar Regions - Antarctica". It chronicles our travels in the American and European North looking for wildlife. There are numerous photographs of the birds, mammals and flowers we saw, and gives accounts of the adventures we had. Include are commentaries on exploration of the North and some of the key people involved. The appendices give detailed tables of all sightings. Travel with us as we journey through the stark but enthralling landscape of the world's remotest regions. Enjoy our encounters with bears, birds, whales and some of the indigenous people.
