Kids Say the Darndest Things!, first published in 1957, is a wonderful collection of children's wit, wisdom, and candor compiled during the long-running radio and TV show "House Party." The show, hosted by Art Linkletter, featured interviews with children, and Linkletter's simple, innocuous questions often resulted in unintentionally hilarious answers. The book remains a classic, timeless account of the innocence and wonder of childhood, and has been popular with generations of readers.
