Someone has been slitting the throats of sleeping college students around Perdion University's campus. With little evidence and no apparent motive, the police have no suspects. Psychic Jenny Larrabee has come to see if the murdered young women can implicate their killer; however, even the victims don't know his identity. Retracing the steps of the women in their final days, Jenny uses other-worldly hints and whispers to try to find the killer--before someone else is targeted.
