Rourke's Remorse M. L. Johnson

What would you do to save your daughter? Daniel Rourke is not a good man--he's a professional assassin with a violent past. When he discovers he's got less than a month left to live, he decides to kill himself rather than live out his days in a nursing home. He has no family to tell except Emma, the daughter he gave up for adoption at birth and who doesn't know about him at all--and whom he'd rather keep innocent of his existence. As Rourke sits contemplating suicide, his phone rings. A stranger's cold voice brings back an unfortunate event from Rourke's tragic past, and through no fault of her own, the daughter he's never known is drawn into deadly peril. Can he save Emma before his own clock runs out?
