Amber Merchant had it all. Living with and engaged to her teenage sweetheart, a nice house and the job of her dreams. Not anymore! Following a devastating revelation from her Fiancé, Amber finds herself single once again and moving on. To protect herself she vows to stay away from men and guard her wounded heart. During an evening out to celebrate her newly single life, a chance encounter with a tall, dark and handsome stranger leaves Amber's head reeling. Intrigued by her draw to him but scared for her heart she flees. Craig Silver, twenty nine year old CEO, is the last person Amber needs in her life. Battling his own demons, Craig is content on a life of meaningless affairs, one night stands and no commitments. At first it seems their attraction is mutual... until she runs. When fate intervenes and their paths cross again, Craig refuses to take no for an answer. Encouraging Amber to take a chance on a single date he sets them on a path of love, lust, truth and deception. This story contains mature themes, strong language, and sexual situations.
