Solos en la noche. Zamudio y sus asesinos (Spanish Edition) Rodrigo Fluxá

La noche del 2 de marzo de 2012, Daniel Zamudio dormía en un céntrico parque de Santiago cuando otros cuatro jóvenes lo encontraron. El grupo lo sometió durante horas a golpes y torturas que semanas después le costaron la vida. La noticia, caratulada por los medios como el ataque de una banda neonazi contra un gay, remeció a la opinión pública. En las calles de la capital miles de personas despidieron su féretro; las autoridades lograron aprobar en tiempo récord una ley antidiscriminación que se conoce como «ley Zamudio». Solos en la noche reconstruye el salvaje ataque, así como las historias vitales de la víctima y de sus homicidas, antes de su trágico encuentro en el parque.
