The Interview: A Love Story: A Woman's Discipleship under the Great Spiritual Master Sathya Sai Baba Mary Adamowski

The Interview A Love Story -A Woman's Discipleship under the Great Spiritual Master Sathya Sai Baba is a spiritual autobiography of the author's search for the hidden truth behind the manifestation of the Universe, and her struggle to experience the Infinite Consciousness that created it. In 1991, the author's search led her to Sathya Sai Baba of India, after he appeared in her dream on three consecutive nights in a row. She eventually made five trips to India to be in his presence. The book contains excerpts from her personal diaries, written during her visit to his ashram. They include her inner vision experiences while in his presence, and the details of her personal interview with him. The author also reveals the little-known method by which Sai Baba gave her liberation from future births, when she was with him in the interview room. The book vividly describes the way Sai Baba guided her in the dream state, and offers a rare glimpse into the author's ability to enter past lives, spontaneously. This is a unique story about the unconditional love between a spiritual master and his disciple, and how that love brought the author to the truth that she was searching for, on her journey to spiritual enlightenment. The book contains quotes from Sai Baba, as well as photographs.
