Wraiths of Winter: Book Three of The Haunting Ruby Series (Volume 3) Joy Elbel

Just when Ruby thought her life was back on track, Fate came along and derailed it. With her heart suddenly torn between two boys, the last thing in the world she needs is another ghost. But when Rachel discovers that Ruby can communicate with the dead, she begs for her help. Crimson has been missing since the Halloween masquerade party and is quite possibly in the clutches of a sadistic killer. Similarities to the unsolved murder of Drake Sterling's girlfriend five years earlier make him the prime suspect. Rachel believes that Drake is innocent and that a conversation with the dead girl, Allison Cornell, will not only prove that he is, but also lead them to Crimson. Ruby reluctantly agrees to help, thinking that it will be a safe and easy task. She couldn't be more wrong. The search for Allison's ghost leads Ruby to the Bantam Theater and her most dangerous adventure yet. Despite Rita's warnings to stay away from the theater, Ruby continues to search for the truth. Ghosts aren't the only things to fear in Charlotte's Grove, though. Strange events lead Ruby to believe that she is next on the killer's to-do list. While two boys fight to protect her and win her heart, she knows that in the end she will have to break one of theirs. But which one? The choice isn't an easy one. Ruby must make difficult decisions that will affect her future while confronting the Wraiths of Winter.
