As a painter of American Folk/Primitive New England seaside art, I am always on the lookout for vintage images to inspire me. When my children's librarian daughter mentioned how much she was enjoying relaxing in the evening coloring my interest was piqued. What a great idea. This is my first coloring book for grownups but it will not be my last, already in the works in my next one featuring New England lighthouses, sailboats and ships. I have a degree in psychology and am always interested in stress relief, however I never guessed that my two interests would coalesce. Enjoy!
