Final Exam: A Surgeon's Reflections on Mortality Exam Final(Portuguese Edition)

Pauline W. Chen

Final Exam: A Surgeon's Reflections on Mortality Exam Final(Portuguese Edition) Pauline W. Chen Aliviar a dor e preservar a vida. Desde seus tempos de idealista estudante, a médica norte-americana Pauline W. Chen tinha consciência de que seu futuro ofício envolveria essas missões fundamentais. Foi apenas na dura realidade da prática hospitalar, porém, que descobriu o que ninguém lhe havia contado nos bancos da faculdade. Seu trabalho exigia, também, lidar o tempo todo com a morte e com os sentimentos extremos das pessoas diante do inevitável. E, para isso, seus professores e instrutores em Harvard, Yale e na Universidade da Califórnia não a haviam treinado.

Ao longo de 20 anos de trabalho, Pauline estabeleceu-se como respeitada cirurgiã especializada em transplantes de fígado. Mas jamais se conformou com o que acredita ser um grande paradoxo da medicina: por que o profissional que dedica a vida a cuidar de doentes, em regra, age de maneira tão fria e impessoal diante da morte? Exame Final - Reflexões de uma Cirurgiã Sobre a Mortalidade é o percurso analítico-biográfico traçado por Pauline em busca de possíveis respostas.
