Led Zeppelin: The Press Reports . . . Robert Godwin

More than two decades' worth of press coverage for the rock phenomenon Led Zeppelin is compiled in this meticulous collection by a noted Zeppelin expert. From their first concerts in Scandinavia to their tragic dissolution in 1980, the history of the disciplined and unprecedentedly mediagenic band is traced from the perspective of hundreds of newspapers, magazines, and music tabloids from around the world. A section on pre-Zeppelin Jimmy Page and appendixes with concerts listed by city, date, and country are included, along with a CD that features an exclusive interview with Jimmy Page.
