Dreams: God's Voice in the Night: Interpret Your Own Dreams with Ease and Accuracy Barbara Lardinais

“We all dream even though some will say they don’t. Most of us remember at least shadows of our dreams. Some dreams are puzzling and some are scary and some seem more real than awake life. Moreover, we sense that some dreams are messages from God; and if that is the case, we want to understand exactly what He is saying to us.”

From the Introduction

As you read Dreams: God’s Voice in the Night, Barbara Lardinais will guide you into a practical understanding of the meaning behind your dreams. Throughout the chapters of this book, you will...

- Consider the various types of dreams that you may have and the purpose behind them
- Recognize the difference between warning dreams, prophetic dreams, and demonic dreams
- Explore classic dream symbols and the benefits of developing a personal dream dictionary

Bringing clarity to your dreams doesn’t need to be an obstacle to overcome. With some simple tools at your fingertips, you will find that you are able to interpret what God is saying with ease and accuracy.
