When It Rains Glenna Maynard

When it rains, all we need is each other. We don't have to think, or talk about anything at all. When I'm with him, time seems to stand still. I shouldn't want to be with him, but fate is plotting against me. He's my deceased boyfriend's brother. A man hardened by the war he fought in. I have battles of my own to wager, but he won't let me face them alone. The only things standing between us are my broken heart and his loyalty to his brother.
