Follow along as you read within these pages stories of long ago robberies, outlaws, claimjumpers and lost or abandoned treasures still waiting to be found. Visit the many ghostly and often deserted mining towns and mines where stories abound. Then, come along with me to witness the joining of the transcontinental railroad and ride the old rails to hear stories of phantoms, hoodooed engines, mysterious lights, and eerie disembodied voices in or near old railway stations. And lastly, visit the locations where trains collided or mines exploded, leaving the residual energies behind them.
