When two wives are out of town, the kids are gone, the stools at the café are really, really close together, the beer is flowing, and the two straight guys start getting horny, -things start changing. One unexpected weekend together, doing some stuff that neither men had ever done, -nor had ever thought they were gonna do, sure started making them look at life, and each other, a little differently. "We, being the straight guys that we are, we're not supposed to like this so damn much are we?"
