Who Is Esau-Edom? Charles A. Weisman

In the ancient time and land of the Bible, nearly 4,000 years ago, Rebekah, the wife of the patriarch Isaac, was informed by God that she would give birth to twins whose fate would be as diverse as their character. The dissimilar and conflicting character and destiny of these twins, Esau and Jacob, would have the most profound impact on future events in the world. This book traces the life & destiny of Esau and his descendants, the Edomites, to the present day, and their connection with modern Jewry. The analysis of the history and Scriptural insight of Esau and the Edomites, will unveil and explain many of the problems in the world. It will offer a new perspective on wars, economic crisis, hate crimes, political conspiracies, Zionism, anti-Semitism, anti-Christianity, government corruption and the Jewish issue. The question of "Who is Esau-Edom" undoubtedly involves the most stupendous drama ever enacted in the annals of man.
