I Had a Dream Carol R. Baldwin

A young woman is torn from modern reality, hurtled through the ages, and dropped beneath the flashing hooves of a rearing horse. Saved by a young prostitute, she finds herself in a long ago world of a straight shooting lawman, and a black hearted gunfighter. Taken to the office of the town doctor, she finds herself struggling to cope with the impossible. Snatched up and returned home by that same rip in time, rather than having had a nightmare, she has been gone two years. Her husband, thought to have murdered her.
