Parents à perpétuité [notre fils a tue mais nous l'aimons toujours] (French Edition) Sophie Moulinas, Dominique Moulinas

Nous sommes les parents d'un tueur et violeur. Nous sommes pétris de honte, de chagrin, de culpabilité. Pourtant, nous aimons toujours notre fils. Nous restons ses parents. À perpétuité. Nous sommes les parents de Matthieu. Le 16 novembre 2011, il a violé puis assassiné Agnès Marin. Elle avait treize ans, lui dix-sept. Seize mois plus tôt, il avait déjà violé une camarade de classe puis il avait été remis en liberté dans l'attente de son jugement. Nous pensons constamment à ses victimes et à leurs proches. Après quatre années de silence, nous voulons, ici, essayer de comprendre. En remontant le fil de notre histoire, de nos décisions de parents, bonnes ou mauvaises, sans rien omettre, sans rien cacher. En parlant du système judiciaire et des ratés des expertises psychiatriques. En parlant de notre fils. Parce qu'avant de devenir un criminel, il était un enfant malade.
