Most certainly not. But once they had discovered it, they were converted forever. They will never be going back to toilet paper. Period.

Why Does No One Return To Toilet Paper?

One dominant fact about this device is that no one returns to the age old way of bathroom behavior of toilet paper after discovering this ground breaking invention. ## Why Do We Clean Every Other Part of Our Bodies with Water?

Have you ever wondered why the one part of our body that needs to be really clean doesn't get water? It doesn't make sense that we would neglect our private parts proper cleanliness. Perhaps it's because there was no alternative for years. But now that has all changed with recent developments in technology.

For anyone who balks at this major advancement in technology and personal hygiene, well, not much to say really, apart from feeling sorry for you. But if you're the decision maker in your house, then your family will suffer from your indecision too. So think carefully. That is until they discover this book or invention for themselves.
