An evil ogre has stolen something from a tribe of happy prairie hobbitts. Bustin Jieber and his sister, young teenage hobbitts, pursue the giant ogre, but get captured by mean trolls. Who can rescue them? What will happen next? Will they ever get back home again? Don't miss this exciting story. The prairie hobbitts live on the open prairies of north-earth. They roam from place to place herding their herds of miniature sheep, miniature goats, and small ponies. The giant stole a magic leather bag. The bag magically produces loaves of hot tasty bread. Whoever has it will never go hungry. Bustin Jieber and his sister Jillya trek across forests, mountains, swamps, deserts and glaciers. They meet up with witches, dragons, ghosts, trolls and other scary creatures. They make friends with young animals: a wolf cub, a puma cub, a young bear. They obtain some magical items that give them powers. They take to sea on an old viking ship, and help some hungry orphans. .... We'd tell you more, but don't want to give away the exciting ending. Don't wait! Get this book today!
