If you're anything like me, you've probably been told in one way or another that "shy" is a four-letter word. Ditto "introverted."

You might think that being charming is the same as being extroverted — that in order to be charming at a party, networking event, or during random small-talk, you have to be the biggest, brightest social butterfly in the room. And sure, that's one way of doing it, but just because it's the loudest way doesn't mean it's the best way.

**Your introversion is not something that needs to be overcome. Your introversion is something that you should embrace!****

But especially for us introverts, the idea of being "charming" can seem impossible. In this book, we'll talk about the 4 main stumbling blocks that we innies tend to trip over -- and how to get past them. In just 10 quick-and-easy chapters, you'll have the tools and solutions you need to go forth and be charming!
