The Teaching of Mother Wit: The Apple Doesn't Fall Far From The Tree Mrs. Henry J. Carter, Mr. Demetrius H. Carter

This book is designed to help the reader examine the challenges in his or her life; to provide an inspirational message of self-help for each and every reader. May it spank the brain and accelerate the mind with valuable purpose. If it serves to help some readers reach a new attitude and approach to life, the book has succeeded. If it helps some readers trash what has become a negative way of life, the book has succeeded. Mother wit is itself a common sense piece of advice. Even though mother wit applies to everyone, the commentary in this book reflects only the author's interpretation. Your viewpoint may be different as a result of a different lifestyle, upbringing or attitude. The choice is yours. But your may want to heed some of the suggestions in this book.
