He's good at his job, but he hates it. Nicholas despises being the man who keeps the insanely wealthy from the consequences they deserve. So when the sexy, Sean Thomas walks into his office needing his services, Nicholas does what he can to avoid his attraction. Will it be enough to keep them apart?

Sean Thomas should know better than to be attracted to his employees, but something about Nicholas Hunter is different. Maybe it is just timing, but being with Nicholas makes him want to settle down into something permanent. The circumstances under which they've met couldn't be worse and Sean knows Nicholas believes he's guilty of something. Can he convince the hot lawyer that he isn't who he was presented to be?

Through blackmail and a murder attempt, Sean and Nicholas will have to decide whether they are going to let their hang ups keep them apart. Will they have the strength to take a chance on each other?
