Ancient Japanese Ghost Stories Toyo Hashi

The stories in this volume were first recorded in 1918 by Richard Gordon Smith, who spent twenty years traveling in Japan and collecting vintage folklore related to supernatural events. This edited and updated version of the century-old text preserves a timeless and contemporary theme for a modern audience to explore. Over 50 stories are documented in this rare collection that once again shines a light on Japanese myths and the haunting tales of ghosts in its ancient culture.
