Antibiotics: The Ultimate Guide to Heal Yourself without Drugs and Prescriptions Studies show that America alone spends close to $300 billion each year of prescription drugs. 50% of adults across the world would have taken at least one prescription drug in the last month. Now, these results are not alarming because of the money spent or the volume of medication consumed. After all, there are billions of people on the globe and these figures may represent only a portion of that population. What is alarming really is the dependence on prescription medication in the modern world.
