A coming of age story... Mafia style. In 1953, Michael Savini made organized crime history when he became the youngest person ever "made" into a Mafia family. He learns that murder is the one thing he can do well, and for a while his rise in the dark society seems inevitable - until he murders two brothers in his own crime family. He runs to L.A. to escape his executioners. His past catches up to him forcing him to burn more bridges with other crime families. With no where else to go, he returns to New York to take on the family who sentenced him to death. A Family made up of Killer's Only.
