This Is A Tempting And Passionate Regency Romance With No Cliffhanger And A Happily Ever After Ending..

"The poetic beauty of the English pasture is source of great inspiration and grace, but it can also be the reason behind great drama."

As she has been fighting against forces too big for her power in order to save her family from bankruptcy, Cecilia Wharton, a humble working woman who had refused herself the luxury of dreaming, gets enchanted by the devilish good looks of a mysterious man.

She runs into danger, and finds herself powerless in the face of cruelty. As help comes from the least expected places, the only one to become her very own white Knight in shining armor turns out to be His Grace The Duke of Stretford.

What can a woman do? Nothing else than to give into his charm and get into even more trouble for it.

When Cecilia finds herself compromised beyond salvation, she chose to tell her lover. Will he do the gentlemanly thing? Or will he leave her to save himself?
