Megan has been offered the opportunity to prove she's more than a pretty face. Drew Mackenzie is hell bent on ruining that opportunity. He couldn't be any further from her type, but something about him gets under her skin and stays there. Is it the annoying way he looks at her as if he might kiss her at any moment, or is it that arrogant laugh that irritates her? One thing is for certain, Drew Mackenzie is the last guy Megan ever expected to fall in love with. Drew has spent a lifetime avoiding being anything like his womanizing father. Hell, that's why he moved away in the first place, to get out from under the man's control. But Megan stirs an all-consuming desire within him that's difficult to ignore; the alpha male inside him wants to claim her, take her directly to his bed and unleash years of pent up sexual desire, but if he does, his father wins...in more ways than one.
